Today we celebrate the feast of our Father Saint Maron. What the Apostle Paul wrote to Timothy, "But you have followed me with eagerness in teaching, guiding, planning, faith, patience, love, perseverance" applies to our Patron. Saint Maron followed Christ's teaching. He himself applied his instruction before he asked people to apply it. The teaching is summed up by the adoration of God and living as a pilgrim, in other words, not giving importance to the material world. Saint Maron led a life of penance, healing, and prayer. The austerity of his life and the miracles he performed attracted many people to ask him for his prayer and to share his discipline.

As the Gospel of John taught, Saint Maron followed Christ, there too he is with the Lord and the Father has honored him.
