الأحد السابع من زمن القيامة: وصية يسوع الجديدة

Seventh Sunday of the Glorious Resurrection

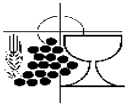

St Jn 13:31-35 - Eph 1:15-23 - Leviticus 19:1-2, 11-18

Jesus' New Commandment

Saying that you love each other, is another way of saying "everyone is beautiful, everyone is nice". It's not a feeling, it's not appreciating others, having feelings for them. It is a method, a way of doing things. We are invited to act, to manifest God, to be activists of love, of loving one another. It is our way of discipleship, of manifesting, of making God's presence public. We can say that God manifests to show his presence in the pain of those who suffer. But in the face of this pain, he invites us to partake, in the pain of those who suffer - and we in turn manifest and make it visible through our commitment to love voluntarily.

Love is the method that Jesus left us to change the world and thus manifest the Glory of God.
