WEEKLY BULLETIN

MAY 18TH, 2025

الأحد الخامس من زمن القيامة

Fifth Sunday of Glorious Resurrection

St Jn 21:15-19 - Eph 2:1-10 - Ezekiel 34:11-16, 23-25a

Peter was well aware of his weakness. He did not forget that a few days before, he had denied Jesus three times in the high priest's court. His answer has nothing to do with his presumptuous reaction at the last meal with Jesus: "Even if I must die with you, no, I will not deny you" Mt 26:35. Peter can only respond humbly: "Lord, you know everything, you know well that I love you". It seems to me that each one of us can only humbly repeat Peter's response, since we are so aware of the weakness of our love for God. We note that Jesus does not give any instructions concerning the task entrusted to Peter. He simply adds two things. The first is that the mission he has entrusted to him is difficult: to love the truth risks leading to rejection, misunderstanding or even hatred and, behind the image of those who lead Peter to the place where he would not go, the persecution that Jesus himself suffered, "If they persecuted me, they would persecute you too", Jn 15:20.
