TWELFTH SUNDAY OF THE PENTECOST

الأحد الثاني عشر من زمن العنصرة

Mt. 15:21-28 / Eph. 3:1-13 / Ruth 1:15-19a

Today's Gospel tells us of the meeting of the Canaanite woman and Jesus. And Jesus' attitude to us seems very harsh regarding this woman who asks for the help of a healing for her possessed daughter. Jesus replied: "I was sent only to the lost sheep of Israel". But the woman is not discouraged, she comes to block her steps by bowing down before him. "Lord, come to my aid". Jesus replied: "It is not good to take the bread of the little children and give it to the little dogs". «It is true Lord» replied the Canaanite woman «But the little dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their master's table». Wonderful answer that completes convincing Jesus of the faith of this woman: she puts herself in the last place just like the pagan centurion of Capharnaüm: «Lord, do not disturb you anymore, I am not worthy». "Woman, your faith is great, that everything happens for you as you like." Faith changes everything and always finds an answer in God. Lord, awaken in us this faith so attentive that it calls for your tenderness as Father and makes visible to us the salvation to which you have destined us.
