WEEKLY BULLETIN

SUNDAY OF THE REVELATION TO JOSEPH

أحد البیان ليوسف

Matthew 1:18 – 25 - Ephesians 3: 1-13 Isaiah 7:10-16

The revelation to Joseph is a saving event, celebrated by the liturgy as a preparation for the birth of Jesus. Joseph, who will adopt Jesus and provide for Him and His mother the protection and help, has the right to be informed by God about the secret of the incarnation of his Son. The Gospel of Matthew describes the personality of Joseph which is clarified through few words said about him; righteous and wise. He was looking for a solution for the situation of Mary without disobeying the laws, which prevent him from adopting a child that is not his. Joseph is from the family of David. He understands the prophecies about the Messiah who is born from a Virgin. Joseph is the man chosen to accompany Mary and care for Her Son. He is ready to obey the order of the angel of the Lord. He is invited to remember the promise given to his father David thousands of years ago, that the Messiah was to be born from his offspring. Joseph, who was confused, is transformed after the words of the angel, to the partner of Mary in the secret she carries. Joseph became committed to what the Lord has ordered, "When Joseph awoke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him."

LIGHTING A CANDLE AT THE CHURCH CHRISTMAS TREE

light this candle on the Christmas tree, I offer its gentle flame as a prayer rising to heaven.
May its light remind us of the true Light who came into the world—Christ our Lord—dispersing every darkness and filling our hearts with hope.

I place this candle with faith:

for peace in our families,

for healing in our world,

for comfort to every heart carrying a burden,
and for joy to be born anew in us this Christmas.

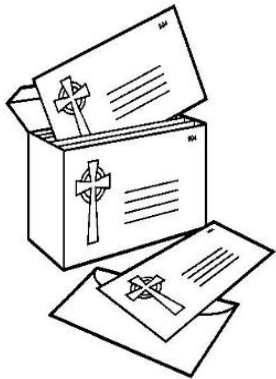

Lord Jesus, bless this light.

Let it shine in our homes, in our church, and in
our hearts,

so that we may walk in Your love and reflect Your presence to all we meet.

Amen.
