HOSANNA (PALM) SUNDAY

أحد الشعائين

John 12:12-22 / Ze 9:9-11, 5a;16-17 - Ph 1:1-13

A great crowd, says the gospel, took branches and went out to meet him"

The crowd carried palms and olive branches: The palm expressing victory; the olive tree, peace. Let us go to meet Jesus by paying tribute to his strength and tenderness, offering him, at the same time, our victories and our peace: our victories over ourselves and over sin-which are in fact his victories and our inner peace that flows from His peace.

"People laid their coats on the way." By example of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, let us throw our clothes at the feet of Jesus, throw at our feet everything that sticks to our skin: our possessions, our bad habits, our false security, our false appearances, our external goods, and above all, our ideas, our desires, our feelings. May the triumphant King deliver us from it. May all that is precious to Him be submitted to him and offered. On this Palm Sunday, let's meet the coming King ... Let us rejoice and exalt Him. Like the branches of palms and olive trees, let us raise our voices to him in praise. Let us implore Him by shouting to Him our "Hosanna": "Save us, we beg you!

Thank you, save us! Thanks, free us! "Hosanna ... Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord". Amen
