Sunday of the Glorious Resurrection

أحد القيامة المجيدة

Mark 16:1-8 / Cor. 15:12-26 – Jonah. 2:1b-3,4b,5:7-11

Sunday morning the women went to the tomb to pay their last tribute to Jesus dead body. The disciples thought that everything had finished in tragedy. Neither one was ready to see an empty tomb and hear the angel's message. It would have taken several people to roll away such a stone. And besides, the sealed tomb had been guarded by soldiers! This is clearly the first sign of the Resurrection. It is significant that the disciples had to first deal with the empty tomb before they could come to grip with the fact that scripture had foretold that Jesus would die for our sins and then rise triumphant. They disbelieved until they saw the empty tomb. One thing is certain, if Jesus had not risen from the dead and appeared to His disciples, we would never have heard of him. The reality of the Resurrection is the central fact of the Christian faith. Through the gift of the Holy Spirit, the Lord gives us the "eyes of faith" to know him and the power of His resurrection. The greatest joy we can have is to encounter the living Lord and to know Him personally.

"Jesus is Risen... Truly Risen. Alleluia!"
