FOURTEEN SUNDAY OF THE PENTECOST

الأحد الرابع عشر من زمن العنصرة

G: Luke 10:38–42 R: 1 Thessalonians 2:1-13 -Deuteronomy 6:4-9

In this Gospel, we witness the hospitality of Martha and Mary towards Jesus. In this brief encounter we see two very different temperaments in Martha and Mary. Martha loved to serve, but in her anxious manner of waiting on Jesus, she caused unrest. Mary, in her simple and trusting manner, waited on Jesus by sitting attentively at His feet. She instinctively knew that what the Master most wanted at that moment was her attentive presence. You see Martha had become so involved in all her duties that she wasn't listening to what Jesus was teaching. Jesus doesn't condemn Martha for trying to be a good hostess. Rather, he tells her that the problem is she has become anxious and troubled over these things. She has lost her perspective of why she was serving in the first place. Her mission should have been, and probably was at first, to give Jesus a place to teach others and to be able to minister to his needs. But she has lost sight of that and actually interrupted Jesus' teaching to vent her frustrations. Jesus said that even though what Martha was doing was important, there was only one thing that was needful, which is sitting at Jesus' feet learning from his teaching. When we neglect time alone with God and time learning from His word, we may become anxious and troubled about many things.

Saint Michael the Archangel | ميخائيل

Friday September 6th, 2026

Saint Michael the Archangel defend us in battle.

Be our protection.
against the wickedness

and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him,

we humbly pray.

And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.

Amen.'
